IN THE SOCIAL REALM.

Eagle Gate Lodge No. 10, A. O. U. W. gave a delightful "smoker" at its rooms last evening. The lodge of about 30 members and guests were present.

The entertainment was provided. After the singing of the opening ode by the lodge, Master Workman McMillan, delivered a most interesting address on the subject of "The Social Realms." The following program was then rendered:

Ten minute speech on the aim and object of the order, W. D. Darke.

Song, "Colored Jubilee Quartette."

Recitation, "The Song of the Lark," by Brother H. B. Bando and guitar solo.

Song, "Jubilee Quartette."

Song, "Brother H. B. Bando."

Instrumental selection.

Song, "Jubilee Quartette."

Song, "Brother H. B. Bando."

Song, "Jubilee Quartette."

Master Workman McMillan thanked the visitors and members for their presence and extended a hearty welcome to all on the outside to get to the inside.

The affair was the most successful of its kind in the city.

At Christensen's hall there was a pleasant gathering of the women of the city. These parties draw out a very select and congenial assemblage and are becoming more popular as each season passes. The time between 8 and 9 o'clock is now devoted to teaching the newest dances without extra charge.

At City's hall there was a good turnout of the more experienced dancers. The social nights at this house are Tuesday and Saturday.

In the matter of costumes the hall was especially brilliant. Many exquisite gowns were seen.

There were many social buds as well as matrons at the reception, and they were as usual piquant and charming.

The annual Alta club reception has again established itself as the leading social event of the year in Salt Lake. After the success of last night, it is hardly possible that the hosts will allow a repetition of the lapse which occurred last year.

The Alta apartments have a wonderful capacity for the accommodation of large assemblages on an occasion of this kind. There were many hundred present, and yet the club rooms did not seem unduly crowded.

The club looked like a flower garden. Elaborations were aimed at in the decorations, and it was attained without giving the appearance of being overburdened.

The Alta members are model hosts. Society will be greatly benefited if they do not allow their gifts at entertaining to go into a comatose state.

C. L. Haines' notable prediction for Virginia Reels has in no wise grown dim. There were two of these soul-exhilarating whirls last night, and it is mildly suspected that Mr. Haines was responsible for them.

THE PIONEER JUBILEE

H. F. McGarvie Is Chosen to Arrange the Plans.

J. WASH YOUNG ENGAGED AS SOLICITOR OF FUNDS.

A Very Strong Petition From Representative Business Men of the City Who Contributed to the Midsummer Carnival, Urging the Appointment of Mr. McGarvie—Are Now Ready For Business.

H. F. McGarvie, the successful director-general of last summer's carnival, was last night employed by the Utah pioneer jubilee committee with the duties of assistant director-general of the coming celebration. Technically speaking, the title of assistant director-general will not be conferred upon Mr. McGarvie, as no director-general has yet been appointed. In fact, however, Mr. McGarvie will be the moving spirit of the celebration, as upon him will devolve the duties of arranging the plans, subject always, of course, to the approval of the committee, which will have absolute control of everything.

The meeting last night was held at Spencer Clawson's residence and was called especially for the purpose of considering the finance committee's report on the engagement of competent men to take charge of carrying out the details. Those present were Messrs. Colborn, Clawson, Whitney, Savage, Rognon and Mrs. Easton.

Mr. Colborn of the finance committee submitted the report, supplemented with drafts of two contracts with McGarvie and J. Wash Young, the latter to be engaged as solicitor of funds. After a thorough discussion of the report, the committee adopted the contracts as submitted ratified.

McGARVIE STRONGLY INDORSED.

Accompanying the report of the committee was a lengthy petition of several hundred names of representative business men in the city asking for Mr. McGarvie's appointment. The list included such names as Messrs. McCormick, T. G. Webber, Samuel Auerbach, E. A. McDaniel, manager of The Herald; P. H. Lannan, manager of the Tribune; John C. Cannon of the Deseret Evening News; the Associated Publishing company, A. W. McCune, S. V. Shelp, George Mullett & Co., Fred Walker, Sharp Walker, J. P. Gardner, the Knutsford, the Colliers, the Tompkins, L. W. Dittman, M. E. Mulvey, Joe Enzenberger, Driehel & Frank and a score of others.

While a few members of the committee evinced a desire to employ some other resident of the state, the fact that Mr. McGarvie was in possession of much past experience in affairs of this kind made him the most acceptable man available. Flattering references were made to his splendid success as director-general of the carnival, which was brought about in less than six weeks' time.

HEADQUARTERS SECURED.

The commission has now engaged seven handsome rooms in the Nauvoo block, 25 West First South street, where headquarters will at once be opened. There will be a reception-room set aside for ladies, who will take an important part in the jubilee. Within a few days a sign will be strung across the street indicating the location of the commission's rooms.

WILL GO TO THE LEGISLATURE.

As soon as the senate question has been settled the legislature will be asked to set aside a day when the commission can be heard and an appropriation asked for. The celebration being a state affair, but on account of its nature and because the commission is a body appointed by the governor, the lawmakers will no doubt grant the request.

WANTED, A DESIGN.

The advertising committee is just now considering a unique design, for advertising purposes, for the jubilee. A stamp emblematic of the event, and merchants will be asked to adopt it for their letter heads. Some enterprising printer will no doubt make a half barrel of gold out of the jubilee. Within a few days a sign will be strung across the street indicating the location of the commission's rooms.

COMMEMORATIVE CUP.

The commemorative cup is to be another feature in the shape of souvenirs which every visitor will want to carry home. It will probably be modeled after the cup adopted at the late coronation of Czar Nicholas of Russia. This cup was made of light steel, handsomely enameled in colors and containing the Russian crown and coat of arms. There will be no need of a state flower, but instead a hand-carved train, a representation of the savages talking to the avocals as civilization, and various other designs emblematic of the event. This cup idea belongs distinctly to Spencer Clawson, who submitted a neat design last evening, and it met with the hearty approval of those present. Mr. Clawson was instructed to negotiate with European houses as to the probable cost of a large number of these cups, they not being manufactured in this country.

PRIZE POEM.

It is also likely that a prize will be offered for a poem on Utah's great jubilee, but no action in this line has been taken so far.

One of the difficulties experienced by the commission up to the present time has been the non-attendance of nearly one-half of the members. It is quite probable the governor will ask some of the negligent members to resign and make room for others who will devote some time. But few meetings called so far have brought out a quorum. This was remedied last night, however, by adopting a motion providing that four members of the body shall be sufficient hereafter to transact business, as if a full commission were present.

TO MEET SATURDAY.

Another meeting will be held next Saturday, when Mr. McGarvie will be present and submit a report on the work requiring immediate attention. This meeting will be held in the commission's new rooms in the Nauvoo block.

Assignee sale of the stock of the Roundy China Company is now in progress and will continue until the entire stock of china, glassware, lamps, etc., are sold. Bargains in every line. Come and investigate.

F. W. GARDINER, Assignee.

HEALTH OF THE CZAR.

Many Stories' Lately Published Without Foundation.

London, Jan. 27.—Some of the German and Austrian newspapers persist in the statement that Emperor Nicholas II of Russia is seriously ill, but the details of his alleged illness as given by the various journals differ very greatly.

Count Varon Daschkoff, minister of the imperial household, has authorized the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph to reiterate the denials previously made of the rumors concerning the condition of the czar, and declared that his master's health is excellent, and that his routine private and official life has not undergone the slightest alteration.

Arrivals yesterday were: Kamaed, C. H. Hand, A. J. Hoenke, Butte, Mrs. Lillian Nordica, Mrs. George H. Walker, Henry E. Sanford, Samuel Daniels, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lollie, Miss Tracy, New York; W. Hammatt, Isadore Luckstone, Baron Berthold, John C. Dempsey, B. L. Berkeley, Denver; C. F. Midganger, J. Clark, New York; R. W. Van Pelt, W. V. Rice, Park City; Mont Perry and wife, John Derr, Miss Brown, Park City.

Walker, George Homings, Chicago; J. Liberman, New York; A. V. Butts, San Francisco; Mrs. Y. S. Erb, Ogden; John M. Struck, Kansas City; A. C. Carr, Minneapolis; C. W. Berryman, Blackfoot, Idaho; H. McLean, Silver City; L. L. Woodruff, C. H. Goddard, Mercer, J. H. Burney and wife, Lost Wound.
